"City of Halloween" DAY TRIP

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2026

Come along for a visit to Conway, South Carolina, which transforms into the official "City of Halloween" all October long, featuring massive pumpkin displays in the trees along Main Street and downtown. Downtown trees along Main Street are hung with miniature pumpkins, oversized skeletons line the sidewalks, and specific local spots are transformed.

We will join in on the celebration of "Halloween, SC" by exploring downtown's massive, month-long spooky wonderland featuring over 3,000 hanging pumpkins, giant skeletons, and themed displays. There are many fun and spooky sights to see! Including The Great Pumpkin Oak: A community display featuring decorated and carved foam pumpkins submitted by local families, schools, and businesses.

We will enjoy lunch at a local downtown restaurant and there will be plenty of time for strolling and shopping!
