High Tea AT HOPSEWEE PLANTATION

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2027

Cost: $130 per person

Join us for a lovely day at Hopsewee Plantation!

We will take a guided tour of the home and learn about the rich history of Hopsewee, its previous and current families, and the enslaved who lived and worked on the plantation. This Southern Plantation home, set on the banks of the North Santee River, was built circa 1740, some 40 years before the American Revolutionary War.

We will enjoy their English Tea Service in the River Oak Cottage Tea Room. It is flavored with Hopsewee's Southern charm along with a delectable assortment of sweet and savory treats.

Hopsewee Plantation was one of the South's major rice plantations and the birthplace of Thomas Lynch, Jr., one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. This National Historic Landmark is now privately owned and has a museum that is filled with historic items including objects found during archeological digs on the property!
