Pawleys Island

A Walk Through History

with Lee Brockington

Tuesday, March 2, 2027

Cost: $140 per person

Come along with me and Historic Interpreter Lee Brockington to learn about the rice planters who originally moved their families to Pawleys Island seasonally to escape the unhealthy river conditions. Settled in the early 1700s, Pawleys Island is one of the oldest summer communities on the East Coast. Unlike its neighboring resort islands, parts of Pawleys have changed little since the 1700s. In the Pawleys Island historic district you will see a number antebellum homes that are still owned by 3rd, 4th or 5th generations of the same families. We will visit historic and iconic structures on Pawleys Island with Lee Brockington sharing their history, stories and legends of this 'Blessed Isle'.
