Magnolia Cemetery & Citadel Dress Parade
Charleston, S.C.
Friday, October 4, 2024

Join us as we tour this rural, historic cemetery in Charleston. Magnolia Cemetery first opened in 1850. It is on the land of a former rice plantation. The property was designed during a new rural cemetery movement that crossed from Europe to America in the mid-19th century. With lovingly landscaped paths and ponds, trees and green space, Charlestonians would come to Magnolia to picnic and play, as well as visit lost loved ones. Today, Magnolia Cemetery continues as one of the best and most beautiful examples of rural and Victorian cemetery design in the U.S. A "who's who" of Charleston and South Carolina history is buried here. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places as a Historic District.

After lunch, we will attend The Citadel Dress Parade. The Dress parade consists of about 2,000 members of the South Carolina Corps of Cadets marching while the Regimental Band & Pipes perform and cannons are fired. The precision and dedication these cadets display is inspiring.
