PRINCE GEORGE PARISH 72ND ANNUAL PLANTATION TOURS
GEORGETOWN, SOUTH CAROLINA
April 4, 2020 $115 pp per day

Join us for South Carolina's oldest historic home tour! We will have the opportunity to tour pre-Revolutionary and antebellum churches, town houses and plantations. Many are on the National Register of Historic Places and are open only once a year for this tour.

Dozens of elegant plantations and gardens, once home to indigo and rice planters of the 18th and 19th centuries, remain beautifully preserved. Each has a story to tell and will be shared as you step inside and glimpse the antebellum plantation life and the rich heritage it represents.

We will enjoy a boxed lunch along the way and at day's end, relax at the very popular Plantation Tours Tea, hosted by the ladies of Prince George Parish at the historic Winyah Indigo Society Hall in Georgetown.
